The Standard
Nili fallit audient nil veri non audient dicere.
CICERO.
TUESDAY, APRIL 20TH, 1937

Special Telegram.
TO STANDARD.
Montevideo, 19th.

The papers are all filled with accounts of the Artigas affair. This morning arrived the "Toro" with the wounded Commander Rizzo of the Artigas. Numerous friends went on board to see him.
He has three cuts on the head, a ball in the face and another in the arm, his whole body is covered with sword thrusts and his left arm with cuts. It is astonishing that he should be yet alive. Nevertheless, he is much better and doing well, having shown the greatest cheerfulness on the voyage, chatting even with his friends. He was removed on a bed to the ambulance in waiting, but the bed being too wide to enter it had to be sawed off. He was taken to his own house.

Yesterday afternoon the wounded from the recent battle at Reboledo arrived and were taken to the hospital. Saturday night several doctors and members of the Committee of Charity and Benevolence had left in a special train with two empty freight cars in which to put the wounded on beds: 55 of them belong to the Government forces and 10 to the rebels.
Lamas carried off the greater part of his wounded.

A telegram from Rome announces that at a consistory of Cardinals, Monsignor Soler was consecrated Archbishop.
Dr. Brian is not going to Europe as he dreads losing his post of Mayor of the Capital and his influence with the Municipality. He also wishes to nurse his candidature for the Senate of the department of Flores. Sr. Beisso, however, will leave as announced.

Count Antonelli has been unable to obtain the liberation of the Italian seamen who manned the Ernestina R. which conveyed Lamas to Uruguay. They have been submitted to a court-martial and a summary is being drawn up.

General Vazquez, commander of army south of Rio Negro, has been unable to leave for his post. Along with his staff he is ready to start at a moment's notice. A large number of volunteers have presented themselves to accompany him, but he accepted only the services of the most necessary to form his command.

The Government has no intention of calling out the National Guard, but will form some new battalions to garrison the capital, amongst them battalion of post office employees and one of Municipal employees. In Salto 680 names are enrolled in the National Guard.

General Rodriguez in Department of Colonia has disbanded 200 brigands who were using the "white" device to commit all sorts of crimes.

Brazilian Government has stationed the tenth regiment on the frontier of Rocha to guard the neutrality.

A new regiment of cavalry is to be created with the name "vanguard of the capital" under Colonel Diaz.
The Brazilian Government has promised to secure the internation of Garcia and several other Blanco chiefs.

The sale of arms has been prohibited in Rio Grande.
Ex-Minister of War, General Diaz, is to be appointed Minister to Brazil.

At the Banco Commercial meeting, all the old directors were re-elected, but two of them refusing to serve again were replaced by Messrs. Mañe and Saavedra.
Earnings for past half year $46,041; dividend of 3% for the six months was declared.

The battle between Reboledo and Cerro Colorado was more like a skirmish; Lamas sent 400 of his men to draw on General Muñoz as he did Villar; but Muñoz was too wily to be caught in that way so that Lamas, seeing that his strategy was unsuccessful, withdrew his forces.
People of all parties blame Gen. Muñoz for stating in his telegram that Lamas fled like a coward.

The Municipality of Colonia has shut its offices for want of employees.
Dr. Brian's family is in B. Aires.
A fine piece of work was the coaling of the Colon. The night that the news was received here of the capture of the Artigas, it was raining hard. Admiral Mudd was sleeping sweetly at his hotel when, at midnight, the Minister of War sent for him saying that coal was required at once for the Colon. Mudd scrambled out into the pouring rain and went to his barges in a small row-boat.
General Perez, the Minister, took his share of the rain standing under the down-pour, superintending the loading of the Colon. While men and ammunition were being taken on, the coal was put on board, 30 tons all within an hour. Both the General and the Admiral were drenched to the skin. The papers state that Government paid $1,500 a day for the Toro which went to bring back Commander Rizzo, but there must be some error as a very few days at that rate would buy the boat; perhaps $1,800 for the expedition is meant.

Stand-by O'Gorman.
(Per Havas Agency.)
The War.
Desperate Fighting.
Success of Greek Arms.
Turks Cannot Advance.

London, 19th.—Turks and Greeks recommenced hostilities this morning. The Turkish troops finally took possession of the Pass of Milonza after overcoming a most desperate resistance by the Greeks.
The positions occupied by the latter were captured after repeated bayonet charges.
The Greeks were almost completely annihilated, and the Turks suffered very severely.
London, 19th.—The opinion current in military circles is that the Turks will easily occupy the whole of Greece if the European Powers do not interfere.
Deptford, 19th.—Six hundred and fourteen Argentine steers were sold to-day at prices ranging from 38 to 44 pence per stone. Also 3,615 wethers at 45 pence per stone. Five hundred and eighty one steers were reserved for future sale.

Athens, 19th.—The Chamber of Deputies this morning voted all the measures which the Cabinet proposed to crush Turkey.

Larissa, 19th.—A brigade of Greek troops is at present marching towards Ellassona to check 8,000 Turkish soldiers, who left that place yesterday, with the intention of invading Thessalia.

Vienna, 19th.—Telegrams from Arts report that the Greek fleet in that gulf bombarded the Turkish city of Preveza again this morning. The port and city are almost a total mass of ruins, whilst the Turkish batteries have been completely silenced.

Athens, 19th.—Telegrams received from the seat of war are creating the most frantic enthusiasm. The bulletin issued to-day states that the Greek troops and rebels are occupying all the Turkish positions along Thessalia with the exception of Anamelorina which is stoutly defended.
The Greeks have so far lost 900 men killed.

Paris, 19th.—A telegram from Salonica states that well armed bands of Greeks landed there this morning and marched towards the interior of the country.

Rome, 19th.—There is a general belief here that the Great Powers will be able to avoid a general conflict.

Paris, 19th.—A Cabinet Council was held in the Elysee Palace this morning.
President Faure presiding, about the Eastern question, and it was decided that France, acting in concert with the other Great Powers, will not interfere in the war between Greece and the Turks.

Paris, 19th.—The Temps publishes a telegram from Obok saying that an Italian mission that left Harar a few days ago for Entotto has been massacred by a South Ethiopian tribe, Captain Bottego, a well known explorer, headed the mission.

Corfu, 19th.—Telegrams from Acarnania say that Greek troops and several bands of volunteers have invaded the Turkish province of Epirus, and seized several frontier towns. All the inhabitants of Epirus and Macedonia have risen "en masse".

Constantinople, 19th.—The Greek residents in Turkey who are unable to leave that country have been taken under the protection of the French Embassy here, at the request of King George; and the French Ambassador, M. Cambon, has so notified the Sublime Porte.

Larissa, 19th.—Yesterday and to-day there have been several fights on the frontier near this city between the Grecian and Turkish troops, for the possession of the Milonza pass, on the road to Ellassona. After desperate fighting the Turks were beaten back and the Greeks retain possession of all the important points in the Pass.

Rome, 19th.—A Consistory was held to-day in the Vatican, presided over by the Pope. The health of Leon XIII continues excellent, according to the clerical organs. The French Bishops Coullié, Sourrien and Laboure were raised to the dignity of Cardinal.

Arta, 19th.—A band of 700 well armed Greeks has invaded the Turkish Province of Epirus and is marching on Philippiada.

Paris, 19th.—A telegram from Larissa states that the Turks in considerable numbers returned this afternoon to the attack of the Reveni pass, the key of the road to Melina. After a fierce fight the Turkish troops were repulsed with great loss. On the other hand it is known that the Greeks have been repulsed in Grizovasi, but it appears that they subsequently received reinforcements and again assumed the offensive in order to definitely capture the Milonza pass, the principal heights of which are already held by other Greek troops.

A column composed of several thousand men is also marching on Damaski, which the Turks are hurriedly fortifying.

Athens, 19th.—It is announced from Arta that the troops which left there are marching hurriedly on the Janina road, but it is asserted that several bands of Turkish volunteers and several detachments of regulars have already occupied the principal defiles from which it will be extremely difficult to drive them. The Government of King George issued to-day a proclamation calling on his people to enlist in order to repel the invaders.

Vienna, 19th.—A storm is raging along the coast of Epirus and Acarnania which is being severely felt in the Gulf of Patras. On account of the tempest the bombardment of Preveza by the Greek squadron has been much relaxed.

THIS MORNING'S TELEGRAMS.
(Received after Midnight.)
Rome, 19th.—Monsieur de Herrera, Bishop of Santiago de Compostela was also, at the Consistory, made a Cardinal prelate.

Larissa, 19th (Sp.m.).—Crown Prince Constantine left to-night for Tournavos, a frontier city near Ellassona, whence he will direct the defence of that part of Thessaly. His staff and a brigade of infantry accompany the Prince.

Athens, 19th.—A Greek brigade under the command of General Dunopolis and a strong division of the three arms commanded by General Marvomichalis also left Larissa this afternoon to march on Damaski. The intention is to out-flank the Turks who are retiring to avoid being caught between two fires.

Paris, 19th.—President Faure left tonight at 9.40. He will visit Tours, Angers, Poitiers, La Rochelle and other cities.
Great preparations are everywhere being made to receive him.

La Canea, 19th.—The Governor of Crete issued to-day a proclamation in the name of the Sultan ordering the Greeks to immediately abandon the island.

Paris, 19th (mid night).—The latest news received from Thessalia confirms the report that the battle of Karva was fought with desperate determination by both Turks and Greeks. The Turks were driven out from all their positions, leaving more than 200 dead on the battle-field and taking many wounded with them.
The exact Greek loss is not known, though there is no doubt that it is greater than that of their adversaries, as the Turkish positions were well defended, and the Greek troops were out-numbered by nearly two to one.

Athens, 19th.—Assim Bey, the Turkish Minister, left this afternoon for Constantinople.

The positions near Damaski and Vigla are all held by Greek troops. The enemy threaten in force the latter stronghold.

Prince Constantine's troops, aided by 8,000 Greek peasants, are at this moment fighting desperately with 22,000 Turks who have again attacked the Reveni pass in order to penetrate into Thessaly.

WAR IN EUROPE.

The declaration of war by the Ottoman empire comes, not indeed as a surprise, but as a long dreaded calamity, the ominous shadow of whose approach had been for some time projected over the minds of thinkers, the schemes of ministers and the operations of the financial rulers of the world. The solemn farce of the European Concert has merged into a tragedy, and it seems to us, as we contemplate from this remote corner of the globe the intrigues of European diplomacy, that this inevitable rupture of hostilities is the first flame in the oft-predicted conflagration that is destined to light up the end of the century and usher in a glorious age of moral, political and economical reaction.
There is in the concatenation of events an unbreakable chain of logic, and just as we have seen the test of the European Concert, so shall we in due course appreciate the true value of what is foisted on the toiling peoples of the world as the progress and enlightenment of the nineteenth century. The European Concert was formed with the humane and soul-appealing object of keeping private ambition and interest in abeyance, of causing the good of the many to prevail over the desires of the few, in a word of maintaining the peace of Europe at any cost. Nothing could have been more in accordance with the principles of our vaunted civilization or more in harmony with the general aspirations of the nations of Europe. The persistency with which the rulers of the aged continent proclaimed the disinterestedness of the Concert appeared to have a soothing effect, a reassuring influence in all except the minds of those students of history who had taken the trouble of comparing the text of European treaties with the arrangement of the map and the conditions of the different races. How often have the Powers mutilated the declining empire of the ill-starred Turk on the humane pretext of preserving its integrity from the rapacity of neighbors or the cancer of internal corruption? The hypocrisy of the present European concert is quite plain. On the 2nd of March the Powers sent an ultimatum to Greece allowing six days for the withdrawal of the Greek troops from Crete, and the diminutive and degenerate remnant of the Danai, encased in the bright armor of a Christian champion, not only scorned the awful injunction, but have so far carried their point that they have forced the unwilling and peaceful Turk to declare war. And the Powers look on, forgetful of the peace of Europe, unmindful of their own ultimatum, wholly absorbed by the unavowable desires they were so anxious to conceal from the gaze of the world. We now see why Germany was indifferent, why Austria drew closer to the Teuton and then embraced Italy; why Lord Salisbury consulted Count Goluchowski, why Count Mouraviev travelled from Paris to Berlin, why Mons. Hanotaux, fearful of displeasing Russia, echoed the Guildhall utterances of the weighty lord of Hatfield. But still positions are very far from being defined.
Is the Uhlán behind the Bashi-Basouk? In what stream will the Cossack's steel stake its thirst? So far, the declaration of war has merely revealed the presence of vulgar intrigue in the seemingly glorious European concert, under cover of which the Powers have united to disagree as to the dismemberment of the Turkish Empire. For that consummation is within measurable distance. The Turk is doomed. Not one chance has been allowed him to reform or regenerate; the powers have always caused the incubus of official corruption to be respected by the struggling and oppressed people. The recollection of the splendid reaction—1874-75—is still fresh in the memory of the present generation.
At that time the people made a bold effort to shake off the oppression that weighed them down, and they even succeeded, through the medium of the Young Turkey party, in wresting from the effete monarch such concessions as representation, free suffrage, proper administration of justice, religious toleration and other reforms destined to raise the nation to the rank of a civilized and progressive people. But Turkish progress would never have suited the designs of the Czar, and the logical result was the declaration of war by the Muscovite.
The hands of the Ottoman clock were put back on the field of Plewna, and the Russian Bear feasted at San Stefano, only to be compelled to disgorge later on by one of those delightful European Concerts summoned to preserve the integrity of the Turkish Empire, that is to more evenly distribute the spoils.

In thus referring to the flimsy nature of European concert and the falseness covered by the mask of principles, we are led, by a natural association of ideas, to doubt the force of the progress and enlightenment with which the rulers of Europe pretend to identify themselves. Peoples, decimated by conscription, by emigration by vice, forced to produce first for the ruler and last for themselves, cannot be qualified as either prosperous or happy, in spite of the triumphs of science and of intellectuality. The condition of Europe is not, therefore, what it should be, and it cannot logically last. The war which has just broken out, and which in all probability will involve the great Powers and test both their moral and their military armament, is possibly the signal for a reaction. It will, perhaps, serve to mark the darkest hour before the dawn of the new century. And indeed, without wishing to lay ourselves open to a charge of cynicism, we may say that however calamitous it may prove to Europe, it cannot but improve the condition of the new world. Already the cable reports rising prices for our wheat and our hides and our produce.

It is eminently practical to view the event in this hopeful light; but, doubtless, the Angel of Death that now soars over the classical plains of Pharsala, and whose wings overshadow a continent, is the bearer of some terrible lesson for those who trifle with the life, the toil and the destinies of nations.

THE BLANCO REVOLUTION.
19 DE ABRIL.

"Quid novi?" Montevideo official surveys say that Lamas is short of ammunition and in a bad way; that President Borda has abandoned his resolve to personally review 5,000 troops in the capital; that Muñoz is driving the Blancos before him; that Arribio has Nuñez in a corner.
The Buenos Ayres Revolutionary Blanco Committee say that everything favors the rebellion, that Borda's official victories are signal defeats, and that all the Eastern and Northern departments are now in open revolt.

In the din of strife the Anniversary of the landing of the immortal Thirty Three Patriots, under Lavalleja on 19th April, 1825, passed nearly unnoticed. No anniversary is dearer to the patriotic Urugu-ayan, whether Blanco or Colorado. Lavalleja landed on the banks of the Agraciada, on the Arenal Grande, with a handful of men, raised the standard of revolt against the Portuguese usurpers, made himself for ever famous on the plain of Sarandí, and laid the corner-stone of Urugu-ayan nationality. General Alvear crowned those efforts, as he won the laurels of Ituzingó.

Conflicting advices arrived yesterday announcing two sanguinary engagements at Canelones and in Cerro Largo. Both Blancos and Bordistas claim the victory.
It looks as if only skirmishing has been going on. The inactivity of Lamas confirms the version that he is short of ammunition and is waiting for supplies from Rio Grande, where the Castiblanos are only too glad to pay off Borda by helping the Blanco cause in every possible manner. The Rio Grandenses are now wiping out old scores, and the threats from the central Government at Rio to seize the Revolutionary Commissioners Dr. Terra and Velazquez, are laughed at.
Supplies are also freely sent from the Argentine side, but the great basis is in Rio Grande.

President Borda sent the gunboat General Suarez yesterday from the Mount to Zarate to take over from the Argentine Government the prize Artigas. The latter is in such bad condition that she must be towed to the Mount. She is practically of no value, and it is now said that her capture by the Blancos was not according to orders from the Revolutionary Committee.
The daring act has cost many lives, sacrificed in bravado, as proved by the abandoning of the gunboat in Argentine waters. As a blow to Borda's "prestige" in the Mount, the loss of the Artigas has some moral value, nothing more.

The Uruguayan Government have rigged up the small steamer Labrador as a gunboat with a few quick-firing rifles.
President Borda is afraid of some "coup de main" on the coast, but up to the present his gunboats have done nothing beyond stopping Argentine steamers up the Uruguay, raising storms of protest from delayed passengers, and rendering his Government still more unpopular. Such is the abuse, that the Argentine Foreign Office has been finally obliged to take some steps in the matter. The steamers Triton and Tridente were detained several hours last week, and Oriental sentinels were actually put aboard. As Argentines have been acting the policeman for the Urugu-ayan Government, we suppose that all this is quite in order, but violent protests have been drawn up, and the limits of patience overstepped.

LONDON LETTER.
LATEST.
(From our own Correspondent.)
March 19th.

The event of the hour is of course "The Eastern Crisis." A letter to the Duke of Westminster K. G., by the Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone. I send the publication separately by this steamer.
This saves the trouble of comment. The St. James's Gazette heads its article on the pamphlet: "A Revengeful Old Gentleman." By this it means that Mr. Gladstone never forgets that Mr. Disraeli's policy prevailed at Berlin over his own "Down with the Turk" cry, and Mr.
Gladstone has never reconciled himself to that rebuke to his self-esteem. Your contemporary says further—"The real impulse which incites Mr. Gladstone, trembling on the verge of the nineties to, inflame his countrymen with this pamphlet is to be found in one sentence:—"It quote the case of Cyprus as a precedent and I apprehend that so far it is good; while I subjoin the satisfaction I should feel were it granted me before the close of my long life to see the population of that Hellenic island placed by a friendly arrangement in organic union with their brethren of the kingdom and of Crete."

"There," says the St. J. G. you have the true motive. Give up Cyprus. For Cyprus was Lord Beaconsfield's acquisition."

The Westminster Gazette says:—"If only we lived in an ideal world where politicians could have all the advantages and none of the disadvantages of any course of action, where there was complete unanimity and entire absence of jealousy and suspicion among nations, we should declare unhesitatingly for Mr. Gladstone's plan. We do not even despair that in time the Cyprus precedent, which is ingenious and useful, may be applied to the actual case of Crete." The Westminster heads its remarks "The Ideal and the Second Best" and with a truly national love of compromise goes in for the second best.

The Times treats the pamphlet as of no consequence, and as only one more instance of the jealous, the disappointed and the impecunious to thwart the benign intentions of monarchs, their omniscient ministers and financial advisers.

Lord Salisbury in the House of Peers this afternoon gave Lord Kimberly a dressing for what the premier called the "outrage" of stating that he had referred Lord Kimberly to M. Hanoteaux for information as to the Cretan policy of Great Britain and the Powers. Lord Salisbury said that at the time Lord Kimberly put the question he could not say what the intentions of the Powers were, and all he did was to recommend to Lord Kimberly's attention the brilliant exposition of French policy by Mr. Hanoteaux and M. Meine in the Chambers. Lord Salisbury pretended to be very angry that anyone—even Mr. Gould, the artist of the Westminster Gazette, should have thought him capable of telling the opposition to "go to—Hanoteaux." Lord Kimberly meekly replied.

In the House of Commons Mr. Goschen had to defend Admiral Harris against the attacks of some members of the opposition who accused the commander of the British squadron in Cretan waters of want of proper precautions in handing communications to the insurgent officers at Akrotiri.

The Government had it all its own way, and Mr. Balfour and his fellow Scot and inquisitor the Solicitor General closed the English little Education Bill through committee. As there were no amendments there will be no Report stage, so that the third reading may be run through next week, when the bishops may rejoice in being masters of the situation and the money, and able to see that English youths shall be thoroughly drilled by competent Church of England instructors in modern languages, physical sciences, book-keeping the thirty-nine articles and general mercantile education, so as to compete spiritually and temporally with Germans, Scotch, Americans, Swiss, etc.

The Irish Landlords in the House of Peers again attacked Lord Salisbury this afternoon on the question of a royal commission to inquire into the action of the Land Court judges in recklessly reducing rents. Lord Salisbury replied as before and as I have reported in a recent letter, but from the tone of his reply, as well as that of Mr. Balfour to questions in the lower House, it is obvious that the next Liberal atrocity to be revised by the Tory reactionists is Mr. Gladstone's Irish legislation in general. The next grant in aid will be a large one intended to pacify the Irish nobility. Lord Salisbury, seeing the evils of the general tendency of Victorian legislation, will commemorate the end of Her Majesty's long reign by adopting the most up to date German model, dividing the nation by a properly drawn line between the free and the unfree as in ancient Greek democracies, except that in our modern States and above all in England the free—or noble—are so few that the division will appear almost invidious.

Much, however, will depend upon the Concert. Already I see the French colony in Crete have protested vigorously against the proposed occupation of Candia, the chief seat of exports of oil etc., almost wholly in the hands of French merchants. Lord Salisbury will make no difficulty about that. He has no designs upon Crete. All he wants is to feel safe under the skirts of an alliance. He has brought the Powers into fashion. I observe a Kinbely paper suggests that a Commission of the Powers should settle the Transvaal and South Africa question, which is looking very ugly indeed. Lord Salisbury will perhaps think over it. I am quite sure "our Joe" won't.

In the South Africa Inquiry Mr. Schreiner's evidence which has continued this afternoon and is not yet over, has proved incriminating to the Rhodes set. Mr. Schreiner, is a brother-in-law of Sir Richard Webster. Mr. Chamberlain stated again in the House to-day that he had just received from the British Agent in Pretoria a formal statement of the Boer claim for compensation for the Jamestown raid. The amount is as originally stated £1,677,000, with some odd pence. As might have been expected, Mr. Chamberlain's levity is announcing some weeks ago the amount claimed for "moral and intellectual damages" did not please President Kruger, who is reported, by the way, to-night to have really formed a union with the Orange State when he was at Bloemfontein. The latest translation of the words he uttered there in referring to the Queen is "a bit of a Tartar." But it was not intended for the Queen personally, and only as representing this country and its Government. And as for "moral and intellectual damages" a jurist has explained that an analogous expression is well-known in Roman law, and that our hilarity is misplaced and betrays ignorance. It seems as if we had done nothing else from end to end in our long relations with the Transvaal.

SUGAR SCHEDULE ARRANGED.

ADVERSE TO THE AMERICAN REFINING COMPANY'S INTERESTS.

ACTION OF MEMBERS OF THE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE YESTERDAY—A RATE OF $1 62 ½ PER HUNDRED POUNDS—A FURTHER DECISION EXPECTED TO-MORROW—SCHEDULE PROPOSED BY NEW YORK IMPORTERS.

(From New York Journal of Commerce).

Washington, D. C. March 9th.—The sugar schedule was fixed to-day, adversely to the interests of the American Sugar Refining Company. The full details were not worked out, but the Republican majority of the Ways and Means Committee decided that the duties should be specific in form, that they should be based upon a rate of one dollar sixty-two and a half cents per hundred pounds for sugar testing 96 degrees, and that the concession made under reciprocity arrangements should be twelve and a half cents per hundred pounds upon sugar testing 96 degrees. The decision to make the duties specific is not a surprise to those who have been familiar with the attitude of the committee, but constitutes a distinct rejection of the advice of M. Searles and other representatives of the refiners who have labored with the committee. They have urged that the ad-valorem system should be retained, because it enabled them to purchase sugar in every market, and did not introduce an element of discrimination in favour of German beet sugar. The committee have been strongly inclined towards a specific duty, and have not been seriously moved by the arguments of the refiners. They have had expert advice from a number of sources and have ascertained that if distinctions were to be made, there was reason for discrimination between different kinds of low grade cane sugar, as well as between cane and beet root. The contention that German sugars do not yield to the polariscopic test in the same manner as cane sugar has also been discounted by the committee, and they are convinced that sugars of about the same quality bring about the same price, in spite of some slight differences in the results of the test.

ANOTHER ADVERSE DECISION.

The sugar refining interest will receive another adverse decision to-morrow, when the differential duty on sugar above ninety-six degrees will be fixed at one-eighth of a cent per pound. This is the differential duty under existing law, but the refiners derive a large degree of protection from the increase in the gross duty on refined, which results from the assessment of duty under the ad-valorem system. The members of the committee have not thought it prudent to go above the differential fixed in the existing law, in spite of the fact that the protection for the refiners is so greatly reduced. It was because of the knowledge of this attitude on the part of the committee that the refiners determined to make their battle for the ad-valorem system. They will be compelled to renew their fight in the Senate, where they will offer, if they find it necessary, to accept an ad-valorem rate of sixty per cent. The present ad-valorem rate is forty per cent, but the refiners would derive so large an increase in their protection by the increase of rate, and would be able to attribute to it so great an increase of revenue, that they will probably rest their entire case upon this proposition. They will derive some help in resisting the importation of German sugars by the provision for countervailing duties, which will be embodied in the new bill. The existing duty upon sugar from bounty paying countries is fixed arbitrarily at one-tenth of a cent per pound. The new law will not name the rates, but will give authority to the Secretary of the Treasury to ascertain the amount of bounty paid by foreign countries exporting sugar to the United States, and to levy upon such sugar a duty equal to the bounty.

PROPOSED BY NEW YORK IMPORTERS.

The schedule of duties proposed by the committee will range very close to the schedule proposed by the New York importers when they appeared before the committee at the formal hearings. Their proposition was a duty of one cent per pound on sugar testing seventy-five degrees by the polariscopic test, and three-hundredths of a cent for each additional degree. The plan adopted by the committee to-day adopts a basis twenty-one degrees higher, with a rate which would exactly correspond with that proposed by the importers if it had been fixed half a cent higher for the entire range of twenty-one degrees between the two schedules. This rate is to be levied upon sugar from countries having no reciprocity arrangements with the United States. There will be a distinct provision for reciprocity in the bill, which will carry the rate for sugar testing ninety-six degrees down to a cent and a half a pound, and will make a material difference in favor of countries granting reduced rates or reciprocal concessions upon American products. The committee have now substantially completed all their work for the perfection of the sugar schedule and the framing of the woolen schedules. It is intended to complete the sugar schedule to-morrow and to take up the woolen schedule immediately afterwards.

Washington, March 10.—The sugar schedule was finished to-day by the Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee. The conclusions reached were foreshadowed in the United Associated Presses dispatch of last night. The differential duty was placed at one-eighth of a cent a pound. A countervailing duty against bounty-paying countries was fixed so as to equalize the net amount of the bounty—that is to say, the exact amount of the bounty, less any internal revenue tax levied. The woolen schedule was taken up at the afternoon and evening session, and several tentative rates were adopted.

GRAND FETE CHAMPETRE.

The event of the season so far was the Fete Champetre given on Sunday last by Srta. Tiburcia Dominguez de del Carril at her estancia "La Portefa" a short distance from Salvador Maria on the Southern Railway, celebrating her 83rd birthday. The fete was a complete success from beginning to end and lasted from 3 p.m. on Sunday until 5 o'clock next morning. A special train from Plaza Constitucion left at 1 p.m. and at day, taking down the numerous guests. Salvador Maria station was reached at 3 p.m. sharp. Over twenty carriages were waiting to convey the visitors to "La Portefa", where lunch was served under the shade of some fine old trees, including oaks and "cumbes". A stroll through the vast and well laid out grounds, a mass of well mown lawns, shady nooks and neatly trimmed flower beds made time fly until 8 p.m., when a récépissé banquet served up by the Café de Paris and to which 110 guests sat down, was served. The vast dining room was one mass of flowers. One large horseshoe shaped table occupied the whole room while little tables at which 4 guests sat were laid in two other small dining rooms. The menu was hand-painted on rice paper. The whole building was lighted by electric light, small lamps being placed here and there in most artistic style.

Furlotti's orchestra played pieces of opera music, waltzes, etc., the whole time. After this the guests again adjourned to the grounds, where the firing of rockets, letting go of balloons painted in the Argentine colours and the lighting here and there of young couples with Chinese lanterns and Bengali lights in their hands made a most remarkable and original picture. Dancing, the great event of the fete, and so eagerly looked forward to by all, commenced at 11 p.m. lasting until five o'clock yesterday morning, when the guests returned to Buenos Aires in a special train, arriving at Plaza Constitucion at 8 o'clock after a most enjoyable day and night. Amongst those present we noticed Mesdames Julia del Carril de Viale, Celina Atucha de Battelana, Josefa Uriburu de Gironde, Luisa Martinez del Carril, Clara Echard de Rodriguez, Maria M. de Salas, Delia R. de Achaval, Rosa Viale de Murature, Carmen Casares de Gutierrez, Martinez de Fox, Posadas de Lieste, Power, Villanueva, Nazari, and Moore; Misses: Josefa and Julia del Carril, Maria Luisa Vidal, Maria Murature, Ignacia and Enriqueta del Carril, Clara Rodriguez Echard, Angelica Romero, Jovita Achaval Maria Luisa and Carmen Gutierrez, Catalina Power, Lia Fox, Mercedes Nazari, Maria Viale, Maria and Alicia Moore Elvira Liesta, Maria Olmos and Elena Bowers.

THE LOCUST.

ON THE RIGHT ROAD.

It last, it appears that something practical is to be done towards dealing with the locusts, after quite too much talk and worthless discussion on the subject. We refer to the good news, received by telegraph by the Merchants' Locust Commission, that the renowned entomologist Professor Lawrence Bruner will come to this country to report on the locust invasions. Professor Bruner is a specialist in the matter, and has for the last fifteen years been engaged on similar work in the United States and Mexico; he has also been Chief of the Locust Investigation Office attached to the Entomological Department at Washington.

Much can be hoped from the coming of this competent scientist, whose profound scientific acquirements are supplemented by long practice. The Merchants' Commission will have ready for him in his arrival all the data which they have received in answer to the circulars which they recently sent to all parts of the country. While referring to this Commission, we may add that as Mr. William Goodwin, its Secretary, is going to Europe, his place will be taken by Mr. G. F. Crane.—La Agricultura.

RAILWAY AND OTHER ITEMS.

Engineer Maschwitz, President of the National Railway Board, returned to town yesterday morning from his tour of inspection of the Andina, La Toma, Great Western and Pacific Railways. Mr.

Maschwitz reports that traffic is rapidly increasing on La Toma line, and it will be necessary to run another train on this line in combination with the Pacific, in carrying produce from the Renca, Conlara and several other valleys.

The new time-tables will be put in force on all the railways from the 1st of May next. Only three trains per week will thus run to Mendoza, San Juan and San Luis: as traffic decreases considerably after the harvest in those provinces.

The National Railway Board Inspection Office of military transports is working hard in order to finish the time-table for the trains which are to take the mobilized National Guards back to their respective provinces.

The Government issued a short decree with long "Considerandos" yesterday, rejecting a petition of the representative of the Esenada Railway Company for rescission of the decrees of March and February last, ordering the removal of the rails between the Casa Amarilla and Retiro stations. The pressure on our space to-day, after the holidays, is so severe that we must hold over the decree in full for our next issue.

THEATRES AND AMUSEMENTS.

The first concert of the season will take place to-morrow in the Opera House, when Alfredo Napoleon the celebrated pianist will make his bow before a Buenos Aires audience. Sr. Napoleon is already known amongst us most favorably, through his many pieces composed for the piano, which are the delight of musical amateurs. Amongst the pieces, other than his own composition, he will play the "Rhapsodie Hongroise" by Liszt, and the Sonata (op. 57) by Beethoven. The orchestra of 50 professors will be conducted by Furlotti.

At the Politeama to-night, they give Gondinet's brilliant comedy "Clara Soleil," which has already been given this season with the greatest success. The performance to-night is under the patronage of the "Red Cross" Society and the proceeds will go to the benefit of the wounded in the revolution in the Banda Oriental.

Julio Ruiz, the popular comedian will take a farewell benefit at the Victoria on Friday next. Sr. Ruiz has been before the Buenos Aires public for the last five years, and during that time has made many friends amongst those whom he has amused by his many successes, and even in his address to the public on the occasion of this, his last appearance, he shows his capacity for jocularity in a wonderful manner.

Next week, in this theatre, they will produce "Los Estudiantes de Bolonia" an opera by the well known Argentine composer, J. Hargreaves.

At the Zarzuela, Leopoldo Baron, the celebrated actor, from the "Teatro Español" in Madrid, will make his appearance. It is some few years since Sr. Baron first appeared here, and he will be remembered as being almost without his equal in Spanish drama. He brings with him a very powerful company, selected from the principal theatres in Madrid. Due notice will be given of his debut.

LA PLATA.

(From our own Correspondent.)

April 19th.

The ex-syndicate of the Dilatregui bankruptcy case has died under strange circumstances. Some days ago the doctor of the Dolores Court certified that Luisone was too ill to be moved, but the judge here, smelling a rat, sent the police doctors from La Plata to diagnose Luisone's complaint. On arrival they were refused admittance to the house, and when the Dolores Chief of Police, armed with an order from the Judge, forced an entrance it was found that the sick bird had flown. The whole affair has now been cleared up. Meanwhile Luisone has not yet been found.

Two boys of 14 on Eastern Sunday went out shooting near General Pinedo. The fowling-piece one of them carried went off by accident and seriously wounded the boy who carried it named San Antonio.

The Senate has been summoned to meet to-morrow to approve the recent elections in the 7th section.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

This busy, money-grubbing hive, the city of the Most Holy Trinity, and of Good Air, resumed its daily-bread work yesterday after the Easter holidays. "Back to town" was the order of the day, and all the up morning trains were fairly bursting with passengers. The topic of the day in all circles was the declaration of war against Greece by the Sick Man. The Greeks began well, and won the opening skirmishes at sundry places that will open the cells or memory of classical scholars—Mount Olympus, Mount Ossa, Parnassus etc. etc. All the Greek gods and goddesses, the whole Pantheon, must be turned inside out with turmoil and terror at the thundering of Manners, Gattings and Maxims at their feet, while Turkish demons and Greek devils slaughter each other with an infernal racket that Jupiter Tonans himself could hardly surpass. Last night, telegrams, however, report a partial Turkish victory, at the Pass of Milonna, which they carried by desperate charges with that arm of arms for good infantry—the bayonet. Who says now that modern repeating rifles have rendered the bayonet useless? The victors lost terribly; but the rifles could not stop them; they carried two positions; but the Greeks still hold the heights. Wonderful to say, public opinion in Europe is now reported to have turned round suddenly in favour of Turkey, as Greece is considered to have provoked a war that may set the whole Continent in a blaze. In English military circles the opinion is that the Turkish army will sweep over the whole of Greece, if the Great Powers do not interfere. Aye; there's the rub.

There'll be trouble for Borda with this country if he doesn't look out. The steamer Triton, on her last run up the Uruguay, was stopped the other night by the Uruguayan gunboat General Flores, which fired a blank cannon shot across her bows. Then an officer and several sailors of the Flores jumped on deck to search for two Blanco officers supposed to be on board, but they could not be found. After a lot of swagger and threats, the Triton was allowed to go on to Fray Bentos, escorted by the steamer Labrador, which is doing duty as a man-of-war. At Fray Bentos the same bullying and searching was repeated, to the terror of the 200 passengers on board, most of them ladies and children. Dr. Alcorra will certainly have something hot and strong to say about this outrage on the Argentine flag.

The Radical Party is pulling itself together for coming electioneering events, and intends to summon a popular meeting at the end of this month. Dr. Frigoyen, head of the party, and Drs. Saldias, Lilledal and Castellanos will shortly start on a stumping electioneering tour in the provinces.

The old and popular "restorer" Felipe is going to move from Calle San Martin to new and splendid premises at 226 Calle Florida, where he intends to fit up an establishment second to none in town.

The flag for the cruiser Garibaldi will be handed to the President of the Republic to-day in the Government House by a deputation of Italian residents, without any ceremony whatever. So best. There has been too much fuss over the affair.

There is a meeting of the Circulo de la Prensa to-night with the Presidents of all the Societies of the city, to exchange ideas about the celebration of the 25th of May Fete.

The tempest raging round the War Minister has lulled a bit for the present. The resignation of General Reynolds will be accepted; but not that of Captains Barilari and Correa, who will be dismissed from the command of the two naval Divisions, their places being taken by Captains Garcia and Laure, and Captain Betbeder will command the training ship Garmiento. Decrees, dismissing Captains Correa and Barilari from their posts, and accepting the resignation of General Reynolds as commander-in-chief of the artillery encampment at Mercedes (San Luis) were signed by the President of the Republic.

The Police-Magistrate entrusted with the Wanklyn murder-case has completed his report, which has been placed in the hands of the Criminal Judge, Dr. Veiga. A clerk formerly in the employment of the well known house of Adhemar has been arrested in Rio Cuarto on the charge of having embezzled $2000.

Dr. Carlos Bollini yesterday accused, before Judge Gallegos, a young man to whom he recently sold a large brick-yard of having swindled him out of $100,000 by means of forged bills purporting to be signed by his father a millionaire.

The last number of the Ilustracion Sud Americana has a decided military tinge and contains scenes at the Dunnehy encampment, and capital portraits of Generals Racedo, Villar and Arribio and Lavalleja, Colonels Flores and Lamas, and Aparicio Saravia.

Preparations have already commenced for the return of the N. G.'s to their hearths and homes from all the encampments. There will be a repetition of last year's pow-wow when the city Guards return here, and they and the Line troops will be reviewed by the President of the Republic.

There was a truly tremendous blow-out at La Plata on Sunday at the opening of the new University there. All the bigwigs of the province, from Governor Udaondo downwards, were bidden to the festival, and there was an enormous attendance of lovely dames and damsels. Dr. Dario Rocha, the founder of La Plata, made the speech of the day, and the building fairly shook with the applause. There was an "opiparo" lunch, and Furlotti supplied the music.

We hear something of a grand Children's Ball in Prince George's Hall on June 24th, in connection with the Diamond Jubilee.

Whatever may eventually be decided, or not decided, by the British community in Buenos Aires, respecting the best way of commemorating the Queen's Diamond Jubilee, we hear that the good folks at Lomas have got at least part of their programme cut and dried. The inauguration of the new building of the Barker Memorial School, which will be ready about the middle of June, will be made the occasion for a grand juvenile entertainment and fancy dress party, in celebration of the great event. All the young people of British descent, in the neighbourhood, are expected to take part. The idea is an admirable one.

The Hon. Secretary of the Buenos Aires Choral Union requests us to advise the members of the Committee that a Committee meeting will be held at 675 Piedad to-day at 8.30 p.m.

The well-known and unfortunate poet Gervasio Mendez died on Sunday. He has been an invalid for many years. Ever since the campaign in Entre Rios against Lopez Jordan he had been confined to bed by an excruciatingly painful disease, caught in the tented field, and for which there was neither relief nor cure, and his death is a happy release. Peace to his ashes.

Yesterday was the glorious anniversary of the landing at Arenal Grande of Lavalleja and his heroic Thirty Three. The Orientales in this city celebrated it in a quiet way; and on the other side of the river, in spite of the troubled times, the great day was not forgotten.

The rumoured poisoning of a foreign doctor by his wife, daughter and son-in-law quite startled the English community yesterday. The doctor said the former gave him arsenic in his tea on Sunday after dinner. He saw her stirring the tea as he suddenly entered the room, and unfortunately drank it, though he had refused to take it a few minutes before. In a few minutes his pains were so terrific that all his previous suspicions were confirmed and he rushed into the street, took a coach and told the driver to go straight ahead. He fainted in the carriage, but revived as it got to the 2d Comisaria, where he denounced the attempt on his life, and was given an antidote by a doctor of the Asistencia Publica. The wife, daughter and son-in-law were subsequently arrested; but were yesterday released, as the police doctors failed to detect any symptom of the alleged arsenic or indeed of any other poison. There appears strong likelihood that the unfortunate doctor is suffering from hallucination and the police-Magistrate in compliance with the representation of the family, has ordered the mental faculties of the so-distant victim to be examined. This explanation of an unfortunate affair at best, though sad enough for the unhappy man, at any rate removes all stain on the family.

The Buenos Bikers carried all before them at the races in Rosario on Sunday only one Rosary man making a show by winning a good second place in one of the races.

The Turko-Grecian war and the Banda Oriental flare-up almost monopolized the space of the two largest papers in the Editorial Bus yesterday; but not a man in town had time to read the half of them. The Greeks appear to be fighting like devils. The rottenness of Turkish administration is shown in the fact that many of their shells do not burst, and a great part of their Munitions fail to work. In Europe the general opinion is that the Turks will win by land and the Greeks at sea. As both countries are utterly bankrupt, blue ruin awaits both victor and vanquished.

We have been favoured with a copy of the "Album del Asilo Naval" (only issue), published in connection with the recent Kermesse at Flores. It is beautifully illustrated, by several distinguished amateur artists, ladies and gentlemen, and we must congratulate them and the publisher, Mr. Jacob Peuser, on the get up of this most interesting work.

The new "Centro Social y Comercial" in Concepcion parish will be opened on Thursday next, and we feel much indebted for a kind invitation to the inauguration.

More particulars of the capture of the B. O. gunboat Artigas by the patriots, which so startled the whole River Plate last week, are still oozing out. The assailants were all Orientales, not Greeks, as was said. Commander Risso and nearly all his officers were asleep at the time, and had to fight in their night shirts. Nine of the crew jumped overboard; and swam for shore. They were fired on while in the water by the crew of the gunboat, and two were badly wounded; one badly aimed bullet struck and wounded a Miss Suarez, who happened to be on the beach at the time.

A case of spontaneous combustion from alcoholism is reported from Tandil, where a peon on one of the 'chaclas' was found dead, his whole body a charred mass. What an awful death!

We offer our congratulations to Mr. Brun, the popular owner of that great establishment "La Ciudad de Londres", on the marriage of his eldest daughter Madlle Jeanne Brun, to M. Ernest Allard. The ceremony took place last week at the French Legation, M. Marchand, the Minister, conducting it. There was subsequently a grand wedding breakfast at the Legation. The charming bride is a young lady of rare attainments, especially in languages and music, and M. Allard has drawn a prize in the matrimonial lottery. We wish the happy couple a life-long honeymoon.

A postcard that required fifteen years to travel ninety-nine miles breaks the record for slow postal delivery. It was mailed in Leicester, England, in June, 1881, and has just been received in London. The address was plainly written, and no one knows where it has been all this time.

We are requested to remind all members of the Lomas Choral Society that the first practice for the coming concert in celebration of the "Diamond Jubilee" will take place to-night at the M. E. Church, Calle Gascon, commencing at 8 p.m. As the time is strictly limited before the date of the concert, it is earnestly hoped that all those who wish to take part in it will attend as many practices as they possibly can.

The famous Perrone, of Garibaldi fame, is in a legal pickle at Bologna in connection with the unpleasantness and "irregularities" in the Bank of Naples. It appears he has some very important documents in his possession, and as he stoutly refuses to give them up to further the ends of justice, the dogs of law have been let loose on him.

Mr. Alfredo Francesconi and Jorge Santamarina, Engineers of this city will very soon bring a new invention of theirs before the public. The invention is a combination of machinery which will enable the inventors to lift any wrecked vessel situated in a river or open sea. With this machinery the inventors can save vessels of any tonnage, and sea going vessels will be able to carry the machinery to be used should any accident occur. Mr. Francesconi and Jorge Santamarina are now working at the plans, and their idea is to promote a limited company. In the year 1868 Mr. Francesconi saved a vessel in Odessa by the system in question, but the plans being now greatly improved and modern machinery applied, it promises to be a great success. This invention will, it so, be of great importance. Mr. Alfredo Francesconi is a well known Italian Engineer, having been many years in this country. Mr. Jorge Santamarina arrived in this country a very short time ago, after having received his technical education in different parts of Europe.

The indispensable Isthmus again! Dates from Panama to March 18th. It is stated that between $15,000,000 and 20,000,000 of Cuban Republic bonds have been secretly issued and sold in the United States and Europe during the last year by the Junta and its agents, the secrecy being explained by the question as to whether the placing of such bonds on the market was not a violation of international law. This statement is said to be made on the authority of the Cuban Junta in New York. Mexican advices report that the city of Oaxaca is experiencing a water famine, which is causing great suffering among the people of that place. All the fountains have gone dry, and the water supply for the city is exhausted. As a result of these conditions, a peculiar epidemic has broken out among the poorer classes which is alarming in its fatality. The victim is first stricken with a vomiting of blood which soon results in death. Advices from Colima state that the inhabitants of the city and State were very apprehensive over a prospective eruption of the volcano's old crater. There had been heavy rumblings at the base of the old volcano and many shocks, which were felt from San Blas down the coast to the Isthmus. In the last two months these shocks have increased in frequency and violence, and the country was becoming thoroughly alarmed. The last eruption of the volcano was in 1880, at which time hundreds of lives were lost and widespread devastation done to plantations and other property. The old inhabitants of the place describe the present seismic disturbances as identical with those which preceded the former eruption, and the belief is general that a terrible calamity may be expected.

France and England are daily drawing closer to each other for the Big Fight. A Paris correspondent says:—"Lord Salisbury's practical grasp of the Turkish question has made him the medicine man so far of a cornered empire. British influence in Europe has been extraordinarily increased, since the publication of the English Blue Books, setting forth the calm, resolute, and decided policy of England. No more diplomatic missives that only served to light the calumny of intrigues of the palace gang at Constantinople. If the Ambassadors were prepared to unite to frame reforms for all sects and parties in the Ottoman realm, they must also agree that their round robin to the Sultan shall not remain a dead letter; they must also unite to compel the Sultan to accept what they submit. Those who decline to turn the screw on his Majesty will then be known, and will become responsible for the terrible events but too certain to ensue."

covered honours in the Show Line. As will be seen from the advertisement, Messrs Thornton and Company, the auctioneers, are prepared to execute commissions and see to the shipment of animals purchased for foreign account. The flock will be sold without reserve, that is to say, only this year's lambs being retained.

As there seems to be considerable doubt still in the minds of some Catalinas shareholders as to the actual scope and bearing of the sentence of the Supreme Court on the various points at issue with the Company, we give the following resumé of the finding:

1st.—The Judge in the Lower Court ruled that the concession was null and void in view of the time elapsed, say since 1882; the Supreme Court on the contrary declares the concession always to have been, and still to be, in full force.

2nd.—The Lower Court ruled that the company had no right to a pro-rata distribution of cargo; this has been reversed, with an exception for all deposits built on ground reclaimed from the river.

3rd.—The Lower Court denied the right of the "Catalinas" to be recognized as fiscal deposits; consequently the Government, according to the Custom House Law, was debared from sending cargo there. The Supreme Court recognizes the Catalinas as fiscal deposits, and as also having a right to receive cargo transhipped into lighters, or that may arrive in La Plata port to be discharged here.

4th.—The lower court would have it that merchants had no right to have their cargo sent to "Catalinas." The Supreme Court rules that article 23 of the Catalinas concession holds good, by which merchants can have all their cargo sent there if they desire it.

We may say that the more the sentence is looked into, the more favorable does it appear for the Company, in spite of the contention that the Government deposits will be ample for all the requirements of trade. As we have pointed out, this is a very near-sighted view, and the fact that under actual conditions the Company is working steadily along, shows that there is a basis of business there. Had the Company come out second best in the law-suit, not only would the Debenture holders be severe losers, but the shares would not have been worth the paper they are printed on. By the turn that affairs have taken there will be new life and vigour for the enterprise.

The great shipping companies seem to be doing well now, or at least considerably better than of late, as we see that the North German Lloyd put together 10,677,558 marks as profits on the year's working, being no less than 2,372,244 marks more than in previous year. For wear and tear 5,880,164 were written down, and a dividend of 4% struck.

There was a distinctly sun-burnt air about the Bolsa to-day, and judging therefrom, the whole ring and hall must have been outside during the week, blazing away at the partridges. A genial, stalwart member of the former tells us he had a very pleasant holiday at the estancia Los Trevelinos in the Pampa Central, about 18 leagues from the Villegas prolongation and the property of the big English Estancia Company, which also owns the Trenel principality. Our genial subscriber says the estancia is in the best flourishing condition, lots of grass, stock fat, and enough rain to keep everything verdant there for some time ahead. He laid in 3 guanacos to his own check, not assimilation, but slaughter, and bared the place of birds. Mr. Wilford is the manager of this fine estate.

What with the war in the East and the trouble over the river, there was no end of topics to-day for the usual after-hour discussion. The sympathies are all Greek and Blanco respectively, but we hear a lot of business has been stopped, which has not put the market in the best of humour. One well-known live stock and real estate broker who had left a business for $80,000 gold completed on Wednesday, as when he made his bow to the principals to-day, preliminary to the signing, etc., he was taken aback by the announcement that the house in question had been cabled to stop blank short on all business whatsoever, and from that order there was no budging. Losing a fat commission of that kind would be variant for free pardon to a hurricane. The best tempered fellow in the world, as a rule, he blessed the Turks all up and down Bulgaria, Macedonia and Armenia, chased them through the classic isles with benedictions, and expressed a fervent hope that the Greeks would make such an example of the Ottomans that Mahomet would not recognize them when they got to Paradise. Of such magnitude is the resentment kindled by a baffled commission.

The market has been swept clean of bills again, so that we must report exchange almost in a state of collapse. Brokers reported 5 francs done to-day and 47.3 d. The sport in produce may help a bit, but unfortunately wool is impossible rather worse than ever, and cereals and hides will not hold out long; add to this that the saladeros have realized all their gold, and it is difficult to see how the premium can fall. There was fair movement to-day. We quote:

On London—47 1/2-7/16d.

On Paris—5.61 fcs.

On Antwerp—5.02 fcs.

On Hamburg—4.08 marks.

The banks gave their rate at 47 d.

Exchange in Rio was steady all day at 74 d.

Discounts are unchanged, at 7 1/2 to 8 % paper and 6 % gold.

We have received the report and balance-sheet of the River Plate Trust Loan and Agency Co., Ltd., for the year ended Dec. 31st, 1896. We have already alluded to the splendid condition of the company and given the principal figures of the balance-sheet, which are as creditable to the broad ability of the board in London as to the very capable management on this side. Considering the ups and downs of the Plate, it is marvellous how this business has been nursed to prosperity and steered through the stormy times of a severe crisis. Mr. Morris, the Chairman, made a capital speech at the meeting of shareholders, and as a sample of what assiduity the business required at starting, we quote his remarks about the B shares:

As to the "B" Shareholders, their Shares originated out of the liquidation of the old Mercantile Bank of the River Plate, which some of you, no doubt, will remember. In 1881 that Bank had been, I think, four years in liquidation. It had been cleared out of all its marketable assets, but it had a great many assets which were not then marketable, and requiring, most of them, a great deal of nursing. A combination was then formed amongst Shareholders, with the concurrence of the creditors, to devise some machinery for nursing those assets, and the result was the formation of this Company, which had to provide sufficient funds to satisfy the creditors' claims, amounting to some £340,000, with no less than £83,000 for overdue interest on them, which the liquidators had not been able to keep down. For some time the prospects of the Company were very gloomy and depressing, and the first Directors, after the end of a year, began to despair as to whether the whole thing was not a mistake, and as to whether it should not go into liquidation. It was at that time, I think, that I was first consulted with regard to taking the position which I have since held. If this Company had not been formed, I need hardly say—and it requires no great skill to say that now—that the prospects of the old Shareholders would have been of the most gloomy character. Now the Capital allotted to them in respect of their old Shares is intact, and they are getting Consol rate on it, with good prospects for the future. I should mention that there was some delay before we could make the smallest pretence to paying a dividend on the "B" Shares. It was not until the second or third year that we were able to pay anything, and then it was only at first 1 per cent., and in the following year it was only 1 per cent., and a fraction; the return upon the "B" Shares has been on the average considerably over 3 per cent., and I hope our friends, the "B" Shareholders—who may sometimes repine that they cannot be lifted up to the position of the "A" Shareholders—will remember how the present position has been attained; and that while the "A" Shares have a heavy liability attaching to them, the "B" Shares are free from any liability, being all full-paid.

There was comparatively little movement in gold at the second hour. The prices kept very firm all along the line, and looked like crossing the Rubicon to-morrow, but for all that, despite the jubilant expectations of the bulls, who are in great feather over starting a heavy market fairly on the move, a rise of 2 1/2 points on the heels of the explosion, so to speak, does not look very alarming. The rate opened at 298 1/2, rose to 299 1/2 and closed at 299 3/4. For May about 2 1/2 points pass was paid, and after the hour the quotations were 299 buyers cash, 299 1/2 sellers and at month. In stocks there were symptoms of a revival in Catalinas, and people are anxiously awaiting the return of the Bolsa King, who has been away for over a week, to take their cue from his line of action. It is supposed that the market in Catalinas is very short for end of month. In other stocks there was nothing at all of note.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the second ring—

Land in the Madero Port.

Sale by auction of the most valuable grounds of the Metropolis of the Republic where the important commercial firms will be established, and where within 5 years the finest, new style buildings will be erected. The situation of the district is the most advantageous, for the port is finished and consequently the value of the ground is undoubtedly an immense one.

Capital invested in these grounds must inevitably increase, considering that the port cannot be moved and the ground cannot be extended, whilst the population is augmenting daily.

There is no doubt that any person who is proprietor of a piece of ground near the port has acquired fortune and a good rent. Upset price $50 per sq. metre, extremely cheap, equivalent to $3.33 per square yard.

On Wednesday 5th May

At 3 p.m.

We will sell by auction, on the very same grounds, according to the law No. 2549 and the decrees of the Government, dated 17 March 1897, the grounds of the 1st and 4th section with the base of $50 per metre. The section No. 1 is bounded by the streets Paseo Colon, Estados Unidos, Europa and the planned Avenida Colon, representing a superficies of 215,394/100 sq. metres and divided in six lots, four of which form corners and the other two are situated opposite two streets. The section IV is bounded by the streets Paseo Colon, Mexico, Chile and the planned Avenida Colon, representing a superficies of 215,394/100 sq. metres and divided in six lots, four of which form corners and the other two are situated opposite two streets. The section IV is bounded by the streets Paseo Colon, Mexico, Chile and the planned Avenida Colon, representing a superficies of 215,394/100 sq. metres and divided in six lots, four of which form corners and the other two are situated opposite two streets.

By order of the Government the terms are cash down, and any buyer of same has to pay 5% of the amount and our 2% commission when he signs his boleto.

For plans and further particulars apply to our house San Martín 254.
